

INGÓLFSSKÁLI
VIKING RESTAURANT

Ingólfsskáli

Named after Ingólfur Arnarson, Iceland's first settler, Ingólfsskáli seeks to transcend you to the golden age of the Vikings through a cultivated yet indulgent dining experience.

For generations, the Ingólfsskáli family have been known for their hospitality. They share their ancestry with an all-encompassing experience that is sure to leave you with a taste of tradition.

Ingólfsskáli Restaurant is a place where contemporary culinary experiments meet heritage and tradition inspired by the Vikings. The Ingólfsskáli family hunts and gathers what they can from the Icelandic nature to ensure the most authentic experience with the freshest ingredients our nature has to offer.

Ingólfsskáli Viking Restaurant is the perfect place for anyone looking for a historical experience and an authentic and delicious meal in the countryside.

Events

From business lunches to corporate dinners, whether you are planning a private event, conference, meeting, team building experience, engagement party or a wedding celebration our one of a kind viking longhouse is a remarkable venue set to impress.

If you'd like to celebrate a special occasion in Viking tradition, Ingólfsskáli Restaurant is sure to create an unforgettable Viking experience for you and your guests. The Viking longhouse can accommodate up to 230 people with an additional side venue that seats 160 persons.

The venue is ideal for conferences, meetings, and other events as we are equipped with the latest sound and screen technology suitable for all styles of presentations.

The kitchen will prepare outstanding dishes made from fresh local produce, either of our menu or tailored to your needs and wishes.

Catering

A rustic dining table set with Viking-themed items. In the foreground, a square white plate with a brown rim holds a canapé with salmon, a tomato slice, and a piece of meat. To the left, a glass of beer is held in a wooden horn. Several wooden cups are scattered on the table. In the background, another plate of food is visible, along with a lit candle in a holder. The table is made of light-colored wood, and the overall atmosphere is warm and traditional.

Ingólfsskáli Restaurant gives you the chance to experience the feasts of the Vikings with a contemporary touch. Clench your thirst by drinking through a horn, eat with cutlery forged in fire and become strengthened by the local ingredients that will leave you feeling like a true Viking!

Offering a large range of catering packages for your next event our kitchen will prepare outstanding dishes made from fresh local produce, either of our menu or tailored to your needs and wishes.

For standing style canapés events we can work with you to create indulgent grazing stations paired with bespoke canapé packages all served in a true viking style.

Beverages are of course plenty and we always endorse a shot of Brennivín accompanied by the traditional cheer of SKÁL!
